American Negro, Greetings: --

he race is now standing at the end te era and the beginning of anoth The world war marks the epochal sition. We are marking time er than marching forward. Our ches are augmenting in number. er than gaining in spiritual pow-Our schools are gaining in efficibut wanting in moral energy and irational appeal. Our political is retrograde. In business entera alone is there encouraging in-tion of a progressive spirit.

he burden of race reclamation is ting from philanthropy to our shoulders. The future service of anthropy will be material, consut and advisory. It can no longer be mate and directive. Two generas of philanthropy have wrought in unless the Negro has been enabl-hereby to walk on his own feet. only help that is worth while is help which helps the helpless to himself. The Negro must hence ard furnish his own leadership guide his own segregated life ch he is forced to live apart. Race eration, not race control, is the for the future. The best elements to two must unite in the spirit of ual respect and good will for the non weal.
